

Futurehub

What is it?

A 12 month programme of development for the future leaders of your business.

Each futurehub group session is half a day a month for 12 months with the dates and location pre-selected by the group of attendees in advance to fit in with their everyday work schedule.

Plus: each attendee will have up to half a day 1:2:1 management development session each month with their facilitators to support their Personal Development Plan's.

Who is the programme for?

You have identified a future successor or new board director for your business.

Whilst very talented, your proposed successor(s) lacks some of the core skills and experience that you have developed to date.

What this programme will provide

- A consistent peer group to work with on a programme that will last 12 months, that is designed specifically for new Directors and Senior Managers of fast growing business.
- A programme that will include the following core areas:

Company Governance - Legal and Companies act responsibilities and duties.

Strategy - identifying and implementing the next phase of growth for the company, review of business analysis methods.

Finance - budgeting, financial planning, management and financial accounting financing options.

Operations - understanding the workflows and key performance indicators for the company, developing analysis and reporting tools for those indicators.

Identifying Leadership Styles - the preferred leadership styles of your future leaders will be analysed and developed to maximise their impact and success in the business.

People Management - effective people management, delegation, managing peers and superiors and how to manage stress levels in high pressure situations.

Exposure to external specialists - Business Angels, Bank Managers and Financiers.

"The Futurehub programme has helped me to grow as a manager, and I have built great relationships with the people I am working with on the programme, who are encouraged to be supportive yet challenging."
